

Ed Phifer

EDWARD PHIFER'S STORY

Edward was raised in Morganton, North Carolina. He was educated at Appalachian State University, UNC Chapel Hill, and graduate studies at Wake Forest University.

Edward spent 55 years in the hardwood brokerage business and furniture manufacturing. He retired from E.J. Victor Furniture Manufacturing, a firm he co-founded, after 30 years, as Sr. Vice President.

He has long been active in Democrat politics and served 4 years on the Burke County Board of Commissioners. He has also served on boards of First Presbyterian Church, Western Piedmont Community College, Grace Hospital, Bank of America (local board), Mimosa Hills Country Club, City of Morganton Zoning Board of Adjustments, Regional Mental Health Board, Morganton Library Board, Dacotah Cotton Mills, and various other committees.

Edward and his attorney wife, Rebecca, reside in Morganton.

